Musically Yours

Message from our Band Director

Welcome to the second semester.

We have completed one half of the school year. Are you completing your goals? Have you learned what you wanted to? Are you being successful? Now are the time for a quick evaluation of your personal study habits and the time to set new goals for rest of the school year.

Jazz band has started. Looking for a different outlet for your music gift and your creativity? Try jazz band. We meet zero periods Monday through Thursday and after school Friday from 2:25 until 4:00PM. The jazz band plays a variety of music styles utilizing the standard big band format. Jazz performances include three festivals, our spring and Pops Concerts and the Dinner/Dance at the end of the year. All musicians are welcome to join.

For the next two weeks the band room is available for small ensemble practice after school until 3:30PM. Solo and ensemble nights are coming up February 17, 18 & 19. All musicians will perform their solo one of the nights and may perform in a small ensemble as well. Students are strongly encouraged to play in some type of a small ensemble.

March 20 and 21 is the Don Lugo Concert Festival. Everyone in the band program, parents included, works at least one shift to support our program. Shifts are about 4 hours long. More details and sign-ups are available at our booster meetings.

San Francisco in the spring time is beautiful. I am looking forward to our trip April 24-26. Please make sure that you are current with both your fair share and your trip account. We do not want to leave anyone behind.

Visit our website www.donlugobandboosters.com to stay current with our performance dates and other important information. Come to one of our many performances including Winterguard, jazz band and one of the three concert groups. Enjoy the second semester.

Musically yours,

Mr. B
